(54) PROGRAM RECORDING AND REPRODUCING SYSTEM

(57)Abstract:

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To obtain a program recording and reproducing system wherein only a user who recorded programs on a large-capacity recording medium can reproduce the recorded programs by a very simple operation.

SOLUTION: The program recording and reproducing system comprises a program recording and reproducing unit 1 for recording/reproducing program on a program recording medium 11 and a portable setting unit 3 for setting the record or reproduction of the recording and reproducing unit 1. The setting unit 3 has an index memory means 35 for storing program information that the setting unit 3 has set the record, and in setting the reproduction, it gives an instruction for the reproduction of desired recorded programs, based on the program information stored in the memory means 35.
